Please inform interested parents of its existence.

Teachers do not need this version for the following activities in Scots.

Prepare your class for writing and reading in Scots with some simple, fun activities, ideal for younger children.

Kidnapped Pirate Workout “Staun Up, Sit Doon”

Staun up.

Pit baith your airms in the air. Waggle your fingirs.
Pit your hauns on your heid. Pit your hauns on your shooders. Touch your taes.

Haud up your richt haun. Gie your index fingir a waggle.
Point tae your mooth. Point tae your left ee (eye).
Point tae your richt ee. Point tae your neb (nose).
Point tae your left oxtar (armpit). Point tae baith oxtars.
(Ask, whose oxtars are mingin?)

Burl roond. Lowp up and doon. Go doon on your hunkers (haunches, crouching position). Staun up.
Pit your hauns on your hurdies (hips). Gie your hurdies a waggle. Gie yoursel a guid shoogle.

Airms in the air. Hauns on the heid, shooders, taes.
Pit your richt haun back up in the air.
Gie your bahookie a wee/guid skelp.

Sit doon.

“Heids and Shooders”

Heids, shooders, knees and taes,
Knees and taes,
Heids, shooders, knees and taes,
Knees and taes,

And een and mooth
and lugs and yer claes,
Heids, shooders, knees and taes,
Knees and taes.

To the tune of “Heads and Shoulders, Knees
and Toes”

“The Shooglie Wooglie”

Ye pit yer richt haun in,
Yer richt haun oot,
In oot, in oot,
Shak it aw about,
Ye dae the Shooglie Wooglie
And ye burl aroon
And yon's whit it's aw about
BREEKS!
